

YALE DUE FOR MORE TROUNCING

Outlook for 1914 Football Campaign Seems More Dismal Than Predecessors.

MUST HAVE NEW TEAM

Crack Fullback to Join Princeton Next Year—Harvard Fortunate.

(By Monty)

New York, Nov. 29.—Poor old Yale! After three straight years of defeat in the Big Three tournament by Princeton in 1911 and Harvard in 1912 and 1913—the Bulldog seems due for a fourth year of trouncing next season. And, looking on from this distance, the 1914 campaign seems more dismal than its three predecessors in that both Harvard and Princeton appear certain to beat the Blue, figuring on a basis of the players who will be left over from this year's team.

The Yale coaches will have to develop almost an entirely new team next year. Seven of the men who began the Harvard game last Saturday will be missing. Six of them are linemen, meaning that an entirely new barrier will have to be built up with the exception of one position, right end. All of the rest of that fighting line, which did nobly against both Harvard and Princeton, will be gone as the result of graduation.

The linemen who will be graduated are, beginning with left and winding up with right tackle, Avery, Talbot, Captain Ketchum, Martine, Pendleton and Warren. One backfield man also will be lost in Answorth, who did the best of the entire Yale trio in both of the team's big games. Arnold, who substituted for Pendleton in the Harvard game, will be lost too, as well as several other substitutes: Madden, a tackle; Harrison, Cooney and Robinson, guards; and Nate Wheeler, quarterback, who was the first string man in 1912 before Wilson came on the job this year.

Princeton Loses Two Regulars. Princeton suffers less by graduation this time than either of its principal rivals, losing only two regulars and one substitute. Captain Hobey Baker and Phillips, the big tackle, are the only ones of the varsity who will receive diplomas next June, the substitute who will go along with them being Emmons, who played quarterback in some of the earlier games and also was at that position for a time in 1912.

Harvard also is rather fortunate in the matter of retaining its regulars, Captain Storer, left tackle; Hitchcock, left guard; and O'Brien, left end, will depart, taking away the entire left side of the line, but three is a very small number of regulars to lose, and the team will be intact at all other spots. Five substitutes will be lost by graduation—Bettie, fullback; Freedley, quarterback; Willets, halfback; Dana, end, and Mills, guard.

Crack Fullback to Join Princeton. Princeton probably will have the most sensational addition to its squad next year of any of the Big Three in young Eddie Driggs, the crack fullback of the freshman team, who used to star on Adelphi academy. Brooklyn. This youth is not only a capable all around player, both on defense and offense, but he is probably a better punter than any seen on a varsity team in the east this year. When somebody speaks of a punter "averaging 50 yards," it generally calls forth a laugh. But here is a kid who really can average fifty yards and who, in the opinion of many who have seen him, is due to be rated eventually among the very greatest punters the game ever has produced.

But, without even reckoning on any additions from the next sophomore class, the Tigers will be able to put a powerful eleven into the field. Regulars who will be on deck again are Hammond, Stewart Baker, Brown, Lambertson and Shea, ends; Ballin, tackle; Swart, Semmons, Hoytner and Ed Trenkman, center and guard material; Glick, quarterback and Street, Law, Fred Trenkman and Gile, backs, besides these substitutes—Adams, quarterback; Benson, end; Borden, halfback; Doolittle, halfback; Finney and Gillespie, ends; Haviland, Larsen, Longstreth and Love, guards; Merritt and Payne, halfbacks; and I. Swart, brother of the varsity man, another lineman.

Harvard Substitutes. Harvard, in addition to eight regulars, will have the substitutes Amory, halfback; Atkinson, center; Bigelow, center; Coolidge, end; Cowen, guard; L. Curtis, end; R. Curtis, tackle; Elkin, tackle; McKinnock, halfback; Mittendorf, guard; Morgan, tackle; Rollins, halfback; Soucy, center; Underwood, guard; Wallace, halfback; Watson, quarterback; Weston, guard; Whitney halfback, and F. Withington.

tackle. The eight regulars to return are the great Brickley, halfback; Mahan, halfback; Bradley, fullback; Logan, quarterback; Hardwick, end; Gilman, tackle; Pennock, guard and Trumbull, center.

Against these formidable arrays, Yale will have only four men left of the eleven men who started against Harvard. They are Wilson, quarterback; Carter, end; Knowles, halfback; and Guernsey, fullback. Others who will be available are Cornell, quarterback, whose jaw was broken in the Colgate game; Pumpelly, who was kept from starting at halfback by injuries; Dunn, Welsor, McLeish, and Malcolm, backs; Caldwell, center; Way, guard; Loughridge, tackle and Brann and Roberts, ends.

ALL UNIVERSITIES TO HAVE CHAPTERS

Chicago, Nov. 29.—With a view to installing chapters in all of the universities of the country, officials of the Sigma Delta Psi fraternity, which is designed to be the athletic counterpart of the academic honor societies, will present a report on the first year's work of the organization at today's meeting of athletic directors of the "Big Nine" who are holding their annual meeting here to arrange for next year's athletic activities.

According to the report which was prepared by Dr. C. P. Hutchins of Bloomington, Ind., national keeper of the rolls, installation of chapters of the fraternity at Yale, Leland Stanford and other large universities is now being considered. The following schools have already affiliated: Minnesota, Maine, Indiana, Butler, Hanover, Wabash and Whitman.

Should the society be installed in the "Big Nine" universities, officials expect that its work soon would meet with favor in the big eastern universities.

The athletic fraternity was formed at Indiana university last year to encourage the physical condition of college students. Candidates for membership must meet 13 requirements which include ability to swim 100 yards without resting, throw a baseball 250 feet and punt a football at least 40 yards.

According to the report but 26 per cent of the contestants failed to qualify last year at the University of Minnesota.

As two of the conference universities already have chapters, officials of the fraternity feel confident that their work will be endorsed by the whole conference.

NORMAN BROOKES TO TRY FOR 1914 CUP

Norman Brookes, the great Australian tennis player, who has not appeared in first-class tennis since his defeat by James C. Parker in the last Davis Cup competition in Australia, has decided to return and will play in the tournaments on the Riviera this winter. If all goes well with him he will make another attempt to win the All-English championship next year.

This of course means that Australia, with the help of Mr. Brookes, who is still considered one of the best, if not the best, individual players in the world, is going to make a strong bid to take the Davis Cup away from America next year and give it another trip to the Antipodes. On the Riviera Mr. Brookes will again have an opportunity of meeting the old competitor, Anthony P. Wilding. When last here Mr. Brookes was considered the best player of the two, but Mr. Wilding has improved so much that the struggle should be a very keen one.

TIGERS WANT NEW DATE WITH HARVARD

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 29.—The general sentiment among Princeton undergraduates is that when the football schedule is made up next year some effort should be made to schedule the game with Harvard to be played next fall in Cambridge at some date other than the Saturday immediately preceding the Yale-Princeton game. Keene Fitzpatrick, the Princeton trainer, declared that just as long as the football authorities were willing to play Harvard the week before the Tigers meet Yale, just so long Princeton would be obliged to enter the Yale game more or less badly crippled physically. Fitzpatrick says it is a most difficult task to have the Tigers in shape for two such yard games upon consecutive weeks.

COLORED MEN ENTER PROTEST

Prohibition of Sparring or Boxing Exhibitions Between White and Black Persons Discriminatory.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 29.—Attorney General Carmody has received a communication from a committee of negro citizens of New York City protesting against the rule adopted by the New York State Athletic commission prohibiting boxing or sparring exhibitions in this state between white and colored persons. The committee claims that the Athletic commission ruling is unfair and discriminating.

The letter points out that the rule was adopted with a view to preventing Jack Johnson, the colored heavyweight champion, from appearing in New York state. The committee contends that it is unfair to adopt a rule which is aimed at an individual but which in reality operates as a bar against all colored boxers.

Some time ago Mr. Carmody rendered an opinion that the request of the Athletic commission, in which he held, in effect, that the commission could not legally adopt a rule prohibiting the so-called mixed bouts, unless such action was based on the ground that these exhibitions might tend to cause disturbance of the peace. However, he pointed out that the commission had no right to place a ban upon such matches, if its action was based solely upon the question of race discrimination. "I have given an opinion to the Athletic commission," said Mr. Carmody in a letter to the committee, which filed the protest, "that they have no right to make a rule prohibiting the meeting of white and colored boxers unless such meeting leads to disorder."
